PERMANENT HARDING COMMITTEE, DESIRE

SMALL CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTIONS ARE ENCOURAGED

Presidential Nominee Outlines Policy To National Committeemen.

HAYS HEADS BODY

Finance Organization To Be Part of General Scheme, Belief.

Washington, June 21.—Senator Warren G. Harding, Republican nominee, today began the organization of permanent committees that will have charge of his campaign for election. Early this morning he went into conference with National Committee Chairman Will H. Hays, National Committeeman A. T. Hert, of Kentucky, J. L. Hamon, of Oklahoma, John W. Weeks, Massachusetts, C. D. Hilles, of New York and Ralph Williams, of Oregon. Others present were Fred W. Upham, of Chicago, treasurer of the national committee, Clarence B. Miller, its secretary and Harry M. Daugherty, of Columbus, Ohio, Harding's manager in the pre-convention campaign.

At this meeting it is expected there will be selected a special committee of nine or fifteen members to act as executive and advisory committee in direction of the campaign. It will be headed by Chairman Hays, who is to continue in his present position as chairman of the national committee.

The presence of Treasurer Upham, indicates also that a finance committee will take charge of filling the "war chest." Upham will have charge of this work.

SMALL CONTRIBUTIONS
It is understood that small campaign contributions will be encouraged and solicited. The campaign program thus far outlined contemplates interesting the widest number of voters possible directly in the outcome of the elections, the healing of all factional differences and placating of the following of all defeated rivals for the nomination. The plan of encouraging numerous small contributions instead of seeking fewer and larger donations is calculated to arouse the greatest public interest. There is nothing new in it. It has been popular in all recent presidential campaigns, but results have shown that it does not prevent the larger contributions. It is probable that the conference will decide to maintain headquarters in New York, Washington, Chicago and San Francisco. The importance of the western states is not overlooked by Senator Harding and his managers. Republican headquarters at San Francisco were opened some months ago by Chairman Hays and placed in charge of Ray Benjamin of California, who has done effective work. Benjamin probably will be asked to continue in charge, although he was one of Johnson's delegates at the Chicago convention.

WATCH NEW YORK
Close attention will be given to organization of working at the New York and Chicago headquarters.

An intensive campaign is to be waged by the Republicans for the New York and middle west states. Daugherty will give personal attention to the fight in Ohio and adjacent states, especially Indiana, Kentucky and Missouri, where the battle will be the hottest.

Details were arranged at the conference today for Senator Harding's notification. This will take place at Marion, Ohio, about July 15. These details will be given the convention committee on notification of candidates which will go to Marion for the ceremonies. Senator Harding has begun work on his speech of acceptance. He hopes to have it completed early in July or shortly after the adjournment of the Democratic convention at San Francisco.

During this week probably Wednesday, he will confer with former Senator Albert J. Beveridge of Indiana, and Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., to get the views of the ultra progressives. This wing of the Republican party will receive tender treatment at the hands of Senator Harding.

NEW YORK WORSE THAN BABYLON

New York, June 21.—New York is worse than ancient Babylon, which was destroyed for its wickedness, according to the Rev. Dr. John Roach Straton, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church. In a warning sermon on the "Elwell" case, he declared that New York is suffering from "sexitis" and scored rich men who divorced their wives and turned their homes into harems. Dr. Straton said that 75,000 New Yorkers fill up the cabarets and theaters on Sunday night whereas only 18,000 attend the churches in the central district of New York City.

RACE RIOTS BREAK OUT AFTER KILLING IN CHICAGO SUNDAY

Two White Men Killed In Attempt To Save the American Flag.

Chicago, June 21.—Race rioting broke out in Chicago's south side district today as the aftermath to the shooting and killing of two white men Sunday night by a mob of negro fanatics, after the blacks, who were engaged in a "back to Abyssinia" demonstration, had burned two American flags.

Chicago's "black belt" district was under guard of hundreds of policemen today, and detectives were scouring the city for the fanatic leaders of the negro "back to Abyssinia" movement.

The two men slain were Robert Lawson Rose, a quartermaster of the Fifteenth regiment stationed at the Great Lakes, and Training sergeant and Joseph, a cigar store clerk. Two men wounded in the riots were Joseph P. Owens, a negro policeman who was shot through the lung while attempting to aid Rose and Hoyt and William Carter, a negro butler, shot through both legs while running from the scene of the riots.

The entire district was stirred by news of the outrage and policemen were rushed to points throughout the negro district to prevent further disorders.

The riot occurred at the conclusion of a parade said to have been led by "elder" Grover C. Redding and Joseph Ferno, self styled "princes of Abyssinia," and leaders of the "star order of Ethiopia and the Ethiopian mission to Abyssinia," a radical movement which is said to have been organized for the purpose of inducing American negroes to emigrate to Africa.

JOHNSON OR JOHNSON
WHAT'S IN A NAME
Chicago, June 21.—Senator Hiram Johnson of California, on departing from Chicago for San Francisco Sunday on the Overland limited, was astonished on going to the pullman compartment reserved for him to discover another man occupying it. The stranger refused to give up the compartment reserved for him to discover so as the result of a complaint made by Senator Johnson to the pullman authorities. It was then discovered that the mistake was due to the fact that the name of the first occupant also was Johnson—"Dr. Johnson of Baltimore," he gave it.

DEADLOCK THREATENS DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

Choice Of Presidential Nominee May Develop Into Factional Strife at San Francisco Next Week Belief Of Leaders.

San Francisco, June 21.—A deadlock over the choice of a presidential candidate threatens the Democratic convention, in the opinion of several potential Democratic leaders assembled here today.

Controlled by men dominated by President Wilson, the resolutions committee's naturally expected to report a majority platform to the convention which will embody the salient planks of the so-called "Virginia platform" indicated at the White House.

Packed with federal office holders who owe fealty to the Wilson administration, the convention will sustain the Wilsonized platform by upholding the majority rule which is all that is necessary to put it through, it is the belief of the same leaders.

Predicts Choice Of Palmer; Third Ballot Is Limit
Democratic National Chairman Homer S. Cummings and others already here, who are supporters of the president, are planning to invoke the majority rule whenever they find it necessary to combat the opposition of an embittered minority.

The "steam roller" of the Democratic committee, will not however, be run over the convention without a stiff, hard fight being waged against it by men like William Jennings Bryan and Senator "Jim" Reed of Missouri, who are unable to see the virtues of the "Virginia platform."

But the real fight if the anti-administration forces are "steam rolled" by the majority rule, will come when the time for the selection of a presidential candidate by the two thirds rule arrives.

The anti-administration leaders predict with every show of confidence that the president's supporters will not command the two thirds vote of the convention necessary to name the standard bearer of the Democratic party. They do not expect to command a two thirds vote themselves of course, but they are planning, according to the scouts they now have on the ground to force a deadlock over the choice of a candidate as a means for compelling sweeping changes in the "Virginia platform."

The leaders of the Democratic party were out of town enjoying the hospitality of Senator Phelan at his seashore residence at Villa Montalvo, when Mr. Scott decided that it was time to jostle the lethargic journalists into action with a few well timed remarks about the chances of the attorney general in the forthcoming contest.

"Palmer's nomination appears certain," averred Mr. Scott. "With McAdoo definitely out of the race, it is everywhere recognized that Mr. Palmer is the strongest candidate and a great majority of McAdoo's delegates will come to Palmer. I am confident that the attorney general will receive the nomination on the third ballot."

Mr. Scott then went on to explain how this would be brought about. "Mr. Palmer will receive about 350 votes on the first ballot," he said, "or more than double that of any other candidate. On the second ballot the vote will be very materially increased and the third ballot will see the boys all getting on the band wagon."

The northern end of the battle line has been stabilized. General Pilsudski, is regrouping the Poles for a counter offensive in Ukraina and will try to drive the Russian across the Dneiper.

CIVIL WAR RAGES IN IRELAND LONDONDERRY IS ARMED CAMP

GREEK WAR ON TURKEY TO BE ALLOWED BY CONFERENCE OF ALLIED PREMIERS

Germany Indemnity Will Be Decided Upon In Meeting Of Representatives at Boulogne; U. S. Not Among List On Nations.

Boulogne, June 21.—The inter-allied conference today definitely abandoned the scheme whereby France proposed to pay her war debt to England in proportion as Germany paid indemnity to France. This decision, it was said, was brought about by America's refusal to permit England to delay payment of Great Britain's war debt to the United States until the amount had been covered by Germany's indemnity to England. Belgium and Italy were prepared to insist upon similar rights which would delay their payments of war debts if France's proposal had been affirmed.

Boulogne, June 21.—Premier Lloyd George, Premier Millerand, and other representatives of the allied powers arrived here today for a conference of far reaching importance on vital international questions. The United States is not represented.

Among the chief subjects on the program were:

1. Greece's offer to go to war to crush the Turkish nationalists and the Turkish situation generally.
2. Apportionment of German indemnity, the method of payment and the amount that shall be assessed.
3. Resumption of relations with Russia.

Premier Venizelos was closely guarded upon his arrival as a result of reports of a plot against his life. He was optimistic over the results of the Hythe Conference and said he hoped to return to London Wednesday.

Belief was generally expressed that the inter allied conference would affirm the decision of the Anglo-French Premiers at Hythe, to allow Greece to open a military offensive in Turkey to crush the nationalists.

This decision was said to have been carried to the Greek Premier in the face of opposition from Marshal Poch and Field Marshal Wilson of the British general staff.

Italy and Belgium are keenly interested in the decision on German indemnity. It was reported that Count Storza, the Italian foreign minister, would demand twenty per cent of the indemnity and would contend in favor of increasing the amount that is to be imposed upon Germany.

"Many promises have been made to Belgium, but we would rather be paid in money than words," said Dr. Jaspar, of the Belgian cabinet. "We shall uphold France's opinion regarding disarmament of Germany with all possible firmness. We are opposed to war against soviet Russia and want to see normal commerce restored there."

LOWER HOUSE FACES DECENNIAL PROBLEM OF ITS MEMBERSHIP
Growth Of Population Since 1910 Will Create New Districts.

Washington, June 21.—The lower house of congress, already overcrowded, must face its regular decennial problem of membership as a result of the 1920 census.

If congress should decide not to increase the membership of the house, several states are likely to have their representatives curtailed and to lose one or more members they now have. This will be due to an increase in the size of the average district. With 435 members, the average number of people in each congressional district now is 211,430, based upon the population of 1910, which was 91,972,266. If no increase is made in membership the size of the average district hereafter, based upon a population of about 110,000,000, will be 243,000 people.

It is pointed out that to increase the size of the district to 245,000 will mean that some states must actually lose in congressional strength, because they can not have as many districts. Indiana, Iowa and Missouri would lose two members each; Kentucky, Illinois, Maine, Maryland, Nebraska, Vermont and Virginia would lose one member each. The losses in these states probably would be offset by gains in membership by California, Oklahoma, Washington, New Mexico, New York, Oregon and Texas.

There were 331 members from 1900 to 1910, when the last increase was made, and the number of people in each district averaged 194,354.

BUDGET SYSTEM IS RECOMMENDATION OF SEC'Y ROOSEVELT
Assistant Secretary Replies To Inquiry Of His Department.

Washington, June 21.—Revision of the present methods of making appropriations and a reclassification and redistribution of the work of the various executive departments are recommended by Assistant Secretary Roosevelt in a letter to Representative Ireland, Republican, Illinois, which was made public at the navy department.

Mr. Roosevelt wrote in reply to an inquiry from Mr. Ireland as to whether any reorganizations, reforms or consolidations could be made in the navy department. The assistant secretary did not confine himself to that department. He recommended that congress:

"Create a true budget system, not the small beginning already attempted; consolidate the appropriations in one general committee, with subcommittees to deal with separate subjects; put into law the general principles recommended by the reclassification committee's report, together with the authorization of adequate salaries to government employees; invite a conference with the executive branch of the government looking to a reclassification and redistribution of the work of the departments, and give by law greater authority to the heads of the executive departments in conducting their executive business, at the same time holding these heads more directly responsible for the successful administration of their work."

LIQUOR PERMITS ARE FORGED AVERS DRY AGENT IN CHARGE
Commissioner Takes Up New York and Chicago Cases.

Washington, June 21.—According to information obtained at the office of the prohibition commissioner, raw alcohol is being obtained in New York through forgery of permits of manufacturers who use alcohol in their products. The forger manages to get the permit after the manufacturer has used it. He makes a copy, even to the forging of the name of the inspector, and with the forged permit obtains the alcohol. This he dilutes and prepares for the trade that is looking for "something with a kick in it."

One manufacturer of perfumes in New York obtains several hundred barrels of alcohol in a month, the officials said. One forgery of a permit of this manufacturer would give the forger a plentiful supply when it is considered that the alcohol must be diluted. In Chicago the forgeries are carried on to obtain whisky. Instead of forging the permits of manufacturers who use alcohol in their plants, the forgers are obtaining the whisky on forgeries of permits issued to sanitarians and physicians. Officials in Washington are confident that they will be able within a short time to bring an end to the wholesale forging.

avor of increasing the amount that is to be imposed upon Germany

"Many promises have been made to Belgium, but we would rather be paid in money than words," said Dr. Jaspar, of the Belgian cabinet. "We shall uphold France's opinion regarding disarmament of Germany with all possible firmness. We are opposed to war against soviet Russia and want to see normal commerce restored there."

CUMMINGS PREDICTS SUPPORT OF WILSON
San Francisco, June 21.—Homer S. Cummings, chairman of the Democratic national committee, declared that the Democratic platform would endorse President Wilson's course regarding the league of nations by adopting the league plank incorporated in the Virginia platform, which the president has approved. This plank was drawn by Senator Carter Glass of Virginia.

The president, Cummings said, at all times had agreed to any suggestions that would expand or develop the league provisions, and his reason for opposition to some proposed reservations was that they vitiated the document. Cummings also declared that while the Republican convention had not disposed of the issue, the party candidate himself had voted for a league with reservations.

OHIOAN IS GRANTED CLEMENCY
Washington, June 21.—President Wilson granted clemency to Lowell T. George of Marion, O., who was convicted in the northern district of Ohio and sentenced to serve five years in the penitentiary at Moundsville, W. Va., for having possession of goods stolen from interstate commerce. The president regarded the sentence as excessive and commuted it from five to three years.

Business At Standstill As Rioting Still Continues.

London, June 21.—Civil war raging at Londonderry and several more persons have been shot to death in fighting between unionists and Sinn Fein sympathizers, said an Exchange Telegraph Dispatch from the Irish city this afternoon. Londonderry was in complete possession of bands of armed men when the message was sent.

A large number of service rifles were distributed among the Sinn Feiners shortly before noon. A detachment of armed Sinn Feiners charged from their headquarters and engaged the soldiers in a violent battle.

London, June 21.—One person was mortally wounded and two others injured in a fresh outbreak of disorders in Londonderry early today, said a dispatch from that city. Firing was continuous in the streets during the greater part of the night. Business is at a standstill as a result of the rioting and looting.

Ireland is described as a powder magazine "with Londonderry as the detonator." Munitions smuggling into Ireland is said to be on the increase. There is the greatest activity in the shipment of military supplies to the British camps in Ireland.

London, June 21.—There was a fresh outbreak of firing in the streets of Londonderry during the night following the pitched battle Sunday morning when many persons were killed and wounded, said a dispatch from the Irish city today.

There was much looting after the soldiers were withdrawn.

GREAT ROUNDUP OF DRAFT DESERTERS BEGINS IN COUNTRY

Government Move Against 170,000 Evaders Of Draft.

WASHINGTON, JUNE 21.—More than 170,000 draft deserters in the United States, several thousand of whom are supposed to be in Ohio, will be the quarry in the greatest man hunt the country has ever seen when the war department completes the final check of the draft record next month.

For months the list of names of alleged deserters has been checked and rechecked in every possible way to eliminate the men who later entered the military or naval service. Just as soon as the final check is completed the list will be made public and the hunt, spurred on by a reward of $50 for each man, will be on.

Already numerous private detective agencies are getting ready to round up as many of the deserters as possible, and many have made vigorous but ineffective attempts to get advance copies of the list. The American Legion will lend its aid in the hunt.

It is the policy of the war department to withdraw the charges against any man who served in the army, navy or marine corps following his alleged desertion.

TENNESSEE IS HOPE OF SUFFRAGE; WILL WAIT ON GOVERNOR

Will Urge Special Session Of the State Legislature.

Washington, June 21.—Tennessee is the hope of the National Woman's party to save the suffrage situation, according to a statement issued at the national headquarters here. Every effort will be made by the National Woman's party, declares the statement, "to induce Governor Roberts of Tennessee to respond favorably to the resolution recently passed by the state Democratic convention urging him to call a special session to pass on the suffrage amendment."

A letter was sent Governor Roberts by Miss Sue White, Tennessee chairman of the Woman's party, formally making a request for an immediate special session.

The suffragists declare they are not discouraged by a provision in the constitution of Tennessee which requires that the legislature must be elected on the questions at issue in a constitutional amendment before it can vote on ratification. They quote a number of lawyers as saying that the present legislature will not be debarred from passing on the suffrage amendment.

PREDICTS CHOICE OF PALMER; THIRD BALLOT IS LIMIT

San Francisco, June 21.—Predicting the nomination of his chief on the third ballot, Robert T. Scott, secretary to Attorney General Palmer, today started the fireworks of what promised to be a very interesting convention week.

Italy and Belgium are keenly interested in the decision on German indemnity. It was reported that Count Storza, the Italian foreign minister, would demand twenty per cent of the indemnity and would contend in favor of increasing the amount that is to be imposed upon Germany.

"Many promises have been made to Belgium, but we would rather be paid in money than words," said Dr. Jaspar, of the Belgian cabinet. "We shall uphold France's opinion regarding disarmament of Germany with all possible firmness. We are opposed to war against soviet Russia and want to see normal commerce restored there."

BUDGET SYSTEM IS RECOMMENDATION OF SEC'Y ROOSEVELT

Assistant Secretary Replies To Inquiry Of His Department.

Washington, June 21.—Revision of the present methods of making appropriations and a reclassification and redistribution of the work of the various executive departments are recommended by Assistant Secretary Roosevelt in a letter to Representative Ireland, Republican, Illinois, which was made public at the navy department.

Mr. Roosevelt wrote in reply to an inquiry from Mr. Ireland as to whether any reorganizations, reforms or consolidations could be made in the navy department. The assistant secretary did not confine himself to that department. He recommended that congress:

"Create a true budget system, not the small beginning already attempted; consolidate the appropriations in one general committee, with subcommittees to deal with separate subjects; put into law the general principles recommended by the reclassification committee's report, together with the authorization of adequate salaries to government employees; invite a conference with the executive branch of the government looking to a reclassification and redistribution of the work of the departments, and give by law greater authority to the heads of the executive departments in conducting their executive business, at the same time holding these heads more directly responsible for the successful administration of their work."

LIQUOR PERMITS ARE FORGED AVERS DRY AGENT IN CHARGE

Commissioner Takes Up New York and Chicago Cases.

Washington, June 21.—According to information obtained at the office of the prohibition commissioner, raw alcohol is being obtained in New York through forgery of permits of manufacturers who use alcohol in their products. The forger manages to get the permit after the manufacturer has used it. He makes a copy, even to the forging of the name of the inspector, and with the forged permit obtains the alcohol. This he dilutes and prepares for the trade that is looking for "something with a kick in it."

One manufacturer of perfumes in New York obtains several hundred barrels of alcohol in a month, the officials said. One forgery of a permit of this manufacturer would give the forger a plentiful supply when it is considered that the alcohol must be diluted. In Chicago the forgeries are carried on to obtain whisky. Instead of forging the permits of manufacturers who use alcohol in their plants, the forgers are obtaining the whisky on forgeries of permits issued to sanitarians and physicians. Officials in Washington are confident that they will be able within a short time to bring an end to the wholesale forging.

vor of increasing the amount that is to be imposed upon Germany

"Many promises have been made to Belgium, but we would rather be paid in money than words," said Dr. Jaspar, of the Belgian cabinet. "We shall uphold France's opinion regarding disarmament of Germany with all possible firmness. We are opposed to war against soviet Russia and want to see normal commerce restored there."

LOWER HOUSE FACES DECENNIAL PROBLEM OF ITS MEMBERSHIP

Growth Of Population Since 1910 Will Create New Districts.

Washington, June 21.—The lower house of congress, already overcrowded, must face its regular decennial problem of membership as a result of the 1920 census.

If congress should decide not to increase the membership of the house, several states are likely to have their representatives curtailed and to lose one or more members they now have. This will be due to an increase in the size of the average district. With 435 members, the average number of people in each congressional district now is 211,430, based upon the population of 1910, which was 91,972,266. If no increase is made in membership the size of the average district hereafter, based upon a population of about 110,000,000, will be 243,000 people.

It is pointed out that to increase the size of the district to 245,000 will mean that some states must actually lose in congressional strength, because they can not have as many districts. Indiana, Iowa and Missouri would lose two members each; Kentucky, Illinois, Maine, Maryland, Nebraska, Vermont and Virginia would lose one member each. The losses in these states probably would be offset by gains in membership by California, Oklahoma, Washington, New Mexico, New York, Oregon and Texas.

There were 391 members from 1900 to 1910, when the last increase was made, and the number of people in each district averaged 194,354.

CUMMINGS PREDICTS SUPPORT OF WILSON

San Francisco, June 21.—Homer S. Cummings, chairman of the Democratic national committee, declared that the Democratic platform would endorse President Wilson's course regarding the league of nations by adopting the league plank incorporated in the Virginia platform, which the president has approved. This plank was drawn by Senator Carter Glass of Virginia.

The president, Cummings said, at all times had agreed to any suggestions that would expand or develop the league provisions, and his reason for opposition to some proposed reservations was that they vitiated the document. Cummings also declared that while the Republican convention had not disposed of the issue, the party candidate himself had voted for a league with reservations.

OHIOAN IS GRANTED CLEMENCY

Washington, June 21.—President Wilson granted clemency to Lowell T. George of Marion, O., who was convicted in the northern district of Ohio and sentenced to serve five years in the penitentiary at Moundsville, W. Va., for having possession of goods stolen from interstate commerce. The president regarded the sentence as excessive and commuted it from five to three years.

LOOTING TAKES PLACE

Business At Standstill As Rioting Still Continues.

London, June 21.—Civil war raging at Londonderry and several more persons have been shot to death in fighting between unionists and Sinn Fein sympathizers, said an Exchange Telegraph Dispatch from the Irish city this afternoon. Londonderry was in complete possession of bands of armed men when the message was sent.

A large number of service rifles were distributed among the Sinn Feiners shortly before noon. A detachment of armed Sinn Feiners charged from their headquarters and engaged the soldiers in a violent battle.

London, June 21.—One person was mortally wounded and two others injured in a fresh outbreak of disorders in Londonderry early today, said a dispatch from that city. Firing was continuous in the streets during the greater part of the night. Business is at a standstill as a result of the rioting and looting.

Ireland is described as a powder magazine "with Londonderry as the detonator." Munitions smuggling into Ireland is said to be on the increase. There is the greatest activity in the shipment of military supplies to the British camps in Ireland.

London, June 21.—There was a fresh outbreak of firing in the streets of Londonderry during the night following the pitched battle Sunday morning when many persons were killed and wounded, said a dispatch from the Irish city today.

There was much looting after the soldiers were withdrawn.

GREAT ROUNDUP OF DRAFT DESERTERS BEGINS IN COUNTRY

Government Move Against 170,000 Evaders Of Draft.

Washington, June 21.—More than 170,000 draft deserters in the United States, several thousand of whom are supposed to be in Ohio, will be the quarry in the greatest man hunt the country has ever seen when the war department completes the final check of the draft record next month.

For months the list of names of alleged deserters has been checked and rechecked in every possible way to eliminate the men who later entered the military or naval service. Just as soon as the final check is completed the list will be made public and the hunt, spurred on by a reward of $50 for each man, will be on.

Already numerous private detective agencies are getting ready to round up as many of the deserters as possible, and many have made vigorous but ineffective attempts to get advance copies of the list. The American Legion will lend its aid in the hunt.

It is the policy of the war department to withdraw the charges against any man who served in the army, navy or marine corps following his alleged desertion.

Chicago, June 21.—Many Republicans are so confident that the next national convention will be held in Chicago that several hundred reservations have been made at local hotels "for the 1924 convention." One hotel reported more than 200 reservations.

CIGARETTE BUTT IS CLEW TO MURDERER OF NEW YORK MAN

New York, June 21.—A cigarette butt and a mysterious woman in gray furnished clues today upon which detectives worked feverishly in their efforts to solve the mystery of the murder of Joseph Browne Elwell, turfman, international bridge whist expert and man about town.

The cigarette butt was found lying upon the mantel piece in the room of Elwell's luxurious home, 244 West 24th Street, where the turfman was murdered. It had evidently been smoked by the murderer, as it was a cheap American brand whereas Elwell smoked cigarettes of Turkish tobacco expressly made for his own use. The butt was still moist when Elwell's body was found, it being examined under a magnifying glass for fingerprints.

The woman in gray is supposed to be married. She is said to be the same woman who created a scene at Palm Beach when she taxed Elwell with attempting to break off their friendly relations. The district attorney's staff has learned that Elwell told the woman they would have to separate because her husband was becoming aware of their intimacy.

While the detectives admit themselves absolutely in the dark it was declared that some of the reports of Elwell in newspapers for "smoke screen" purposes. They hoped thus to mislead the murderer into the belief that false leads were being followed.

Assistant District Atty. Joyce has definitely established that Elwell was in home at 2:30 o'clock on the morning of June 11 when he was shot. It was learned that Elwell talked on the telephone from his apartment with an acquaintance between 2:30 and 3 o'clock. This indicated that he had gone straight home from the "midnight frolic" instead of visiting several other all night dancing palaces as had been previously reported.

ARREST BOYS FOR THEFT OF BICYCLES

William Lewis, 12, West Second street, and Floyd Shanks, 12, Shelton road, were arrested by Chief of Police Graham Monday morning, and two bicycles which they admitted stealing last week were recovered for the owners.

The boys took the bicycle owned by Fred Schultz from in front of the Xenia National Bank last Wednesday night and Saturday night stole the wheel owned by Donald Currie from in front of the Orphium Theater. The boys were apprehended and questioned by Chief Graham Sunday evening and Monday morning the placed both lads under arrest. They will probably be taken before Probate Court.

LOCAL POLICE TO WATCH FOR ROBBERS

Chief of Police Graham has received a circular from Delta, Ohio, asking for the arrest of three men who stole thousands of dollars worth of securities from a Delta Bank on May 20. The three men, whose pictures were shown and who are known to have assisted in the bank robbery, constitute the same trio that robbed the West Carrollton bank sometime before that securing about $30,000 in money and securities. A big price is on their heads, as one of them is also an escaped convict who has been at large since 1913.

Alleging that he has been wholly and permanently incapacitated by reason of an injury which he sustained while in the employ of the defendant on his farm in patron township, Joseph Payne has brought suit in common pleas court to recover $2000 damages from Harry E. Geron.

He avers in his petition that in July, 1919, he was loading hay for the defendant and was standing on a wagon, when without warning to him, and without cause, he that the defendant thrust a pitchfork into the body of the horse, hitched to the wagon causing the animal to plunge and kick him in the side. He declares that he was thrown from the wagon, his right arm and some ribs broken, and his lungs injured. Harry C. Armstrong, Attorney.

On the grounds that a verbal contract was violated, Harvey Humston has brought suit against Harley Devoe to recover $360.50 damages. He says that the defendant violated the terms of the contract while he was a tenant on the plaintiff's 111 acre farm in Caesarcreek township from March, 1916 to March, 1920.

Estelle Worthington has brought suit to be divorced from Orlando Worthington, to whom she was married January 3, 1897, alleging gross neglect for five years. She says that they own jointly in Jamestown property which was paid for solely out of her own means, and she asked for an injunction preventing him encumbering his share, and for alimony.

CARR BROTHERS TO MOVE TO THE MAIN GARAGE ON LEASE

Russel and Frank Carr, proprietors of the Carr Bros. garage on Whiteman street, have eased the Mals garage on West Main street, from Earl Hering, proprietor, and are now moving into their new location.

The Carr Brothers, who have occupied the old fire engine house on Whiteman street, have been forced to move because of the sale of the property to the Belden Milling Co. Mr. Hering who is giving up the garage and repair work, will continue to sell the Elcar, for which he has the agency, and he will make the Main garage the home of that car.

With the announcement of the removal of the Carr Bros. garage to the West Main street location, the announcement is also being made, that Harry Sutton, and his sons, Bernard, who have entire Greene County for the Studebaker automobile, will be associated with Carr Bros., and will make the Main garage their headquarters. They have recently been connected with the garage on Whiteman street.

The Carr Bros. are not discontinuing their repair work during the removal to the new location.

DENIES REPORTS

New York, June 21.—Reports that Mrs. Madeline Force Astor Dick, widow of the late John Jacob Astor, who lost his life on the Titanic, had leased a house at Reno, Nev., and would establish a residence there, were emphatically denied here today by Mrs. Dick.

"There is not a word of truth in the reports," Mrs. Dick declared.

THIS PLAIN LITTLE HOUSE MAY BECOME FAMOUS AS BIRTHPLACE OF PRESIDENT

Where Senator Harding was born.

This house, still standing in the village of Bloominggrove, Morrow county, Ohio, just north of Mt. Gilead, is where Senator Warren G. Harding was born on November 2, 1865. Should the senator, named as the presidential candidate of the Republican party, win in the election this house will take its place with other historic structures. Citizens of Morrow county are said to be planning to obtain an option on the house and restore it to its original condition if Harding wins.

SUSTAINS PAINFUL ACCIDENT AT WORK

Catching his hand in what is called the "softener machine," Charles Cline, Cincinnati Avenue, employee of the Hoover & Allison Co., sustained painful cuts and lacerations, while at work Monday morning.

Cline is employed in the preparation room of Mill No. 3, and was putting a clump of sisal in the softener when the machine caught his fingers, drawing in his hand. The skin was practically taken off the entire hand. He was taken to the office of Dr. A. C. Messenger by E. B. Rowland, employment agent for the company, where 25 stitches were taken to dress the wound. Dr. Messenger administered an anti-tetanus toxin and removed the man to his home. He will not lose any fingers due to the accident.

MESSANGER OFFICE TO BE MOVED TO REAR OF BUILDING

Dr. A. C. Messenger is preparing to move his office, and that of Dr. Harold C. Messenger, who is recovering from an operation for appendicitis, to the more commodious quarters in the rear of his present offices at Detroit and Second streets next week.

The rear portion of the house, formerly used as a residence by Dr. Messenger, who recently moved to North King street, is being fixed up with office, waiting rooms, operating rooms and a small ward, so that surgical cases can be taken care of more adequately. The new offices will be modernly equipped and fitted to take care of operations.

Part of the offices in the front of the house, which have been occupied by Drs. A. C. and H. C. Messenger, have been rented by Drs. E. E. Sweet and J. M. Moeller, recently graduated from the veterinary school at Ohio State University, who will start in practice in this city, and will open their offices shortly.

PLACE WHEAT CROP COST AT $2.15 PER BUSHEL IN REPORT

Washington, June 21.—The 1919 American wheat crop was produced at an average cost to the grower of $2.15 a bushel, the department of agriculture announced in making public its recent cost of production survey.

The survey covered 14 representative districts of the wheat belt, nine in the winter wheat areas of Kansas, Nebraska and Missouri, and five in the spring wheat regions of Minnesota, North and South Dakota.

The survey further revealed, the department said, that to permit a profit on 80 per cent of the wheat produced on the farms covered by the survey, the price would have to be about $2.60.

Cost of producing winter wheat was much lower than for spring wheat, the costs being given as $1.98 and $2.65, respectively.

"Dollar wheat," once the aspiration of wheat growers, would have paid the cost of production on only two of the 481 farms included in the survey.

POLICE ARREST TWO ALLEGED MENTALLY AFFECTED SUNDAY

Chief of Police Graham probably will be asking city commission for an appropriation to fit up one of the cell rooms at Police Headquarters as a padded cell, if many more men like two harbored at Police Headquarters Sunday are taken into custody.

John Massie, 19, colored, of this city, was arrested Saturday night by Patrolman Simms, and released Sunday morning and re-arrested Monday morning by Patrolman Day. It is probable that he will be turned over to Probate Court.

Massie is laboring under the illusion that someone is chasing him, and he complains that automobiles full of people are after him all the time. Letters found in his pocket addressed to the Chief of Police of Canton, asked over and over "what have I done?" Police believe that he fears violence or himself due to an illusion resulting from his state of mind.

Roy Ketcham, 30, white, of Illinois, was arrested by Patrolman Simms early Sunday morning and released Monday morning, without being arraigned. He also seems to be suffering mentally, claiming to be an inventor, a writer of poems and of books. One of his poems predicted the fall of the "Yellow Dog Party" in November of this year. He was thinly clad and so Chief Graham kept him at headquarters during the rain of Sunday and released him Monday morning.

PLACE WHEAT CROP COST AT $2.15 PER BUSHEL IN REPORT

Washington, June 21.—The 1919 American wheat crop was produced at an average cost to the grower of $2.15 a bushel, the department of agriculture announced in making public its recent cost of production survey.

The survey covered 14 representative districts of the wheat belt, nine in the winter wheat areas of Kansas, Nebraska and Missouri, and five in the spring wheat regions of Minnesota, North and South Dakota.

The survey further revealed, the department said, that to permit a profit on 80 per cent of the wheat produced on the farms covered by the survey, the price would have to be about $2.60.

Cost of producing winter wheat was much lower than for spring wheat, the costs being given as $1.98 and $2.65, respectively.

"Dollar wheat," once the aspiration of wheat growers, would have paid the cost of production on only two of the 481 farms included in the survey.

POLICE ARREST TWO ALLEGED MENTALLY AFFECTED SUNDAY

Chief of Police Graham probably will be asking city commission for an appropriation to fit up one of the cell rooms at Police Headquarters as a padded cell, if many more men like two harbored at Police Headquarters Sunday are taken into custody.

John Massie, 19, colored, of this city, was arrested Saturday night by Patrolman Simms, and released Sunday morning and re-arrested Monday morning by Patrolman Day. It is probable that he will be turned over to Probate Court.

Massie is laboring under the illusion that someone is chasing him, and he complains that automobiles full of people are after him all the time. Letters found in his pocket addressed to the Chief of Police of Canton, asked over and over "what have I done?" Police believe that he fears violence or himself due to an illusion resulting from his state of mind.

Roy Ketcham, 30, white, of Illinois, was arrested by Patrolman Simms early Sunday morning and released Monday morning, without being arraigned. He also seems to be suffering mentally, claiming to be an inventor, a writer of poems and of books. One of his poems predicted the fall of the "Yellow Dog Party" in November of this year. He was thinly clad and so Chief Graham kept him at headquarters during the rain of Sunday and released him Monday morning.

AN ENEMY TO CONSTIPATION

Constipation and bowel trouble can't be helped by strong drugs.

The stomach and bowels need a vegetable remedy like Dr. Edwards' Dandelion Pills to help them produce a natural, easy movement.

Dr. Edwards' Dandelion Pills contain no Calomel or injurious drugs. They are purely vegetable and teach the bowels to act without physic. They act on the liver, increase the flow of bile; this, in turn, digesting the food and moving the bowels in a perfectly natural manner.

Get a box today, and it's goodbye constipation, and all stomach and liver troubles. For sale by all Druggists.

FREIGHT MOVEMENTS AT STANDSTILL AS RESULT OF STRIKE

Baltimore, Md., June 21.—Baltimore today is in the grip of the new unauthorized strike of railroad yard workers which had its inception in Philadelphia last Saturday. Freight movements on the Baltimore and Ohio and the Pennsylvania railroads were practically at a standstill today. As far as could be learned the Western Maryland railroad has not been affected. A drastic embargo on freight shipments of every description has been declared on the Baltimore and Ohio lines east of Cumberland. An embargo on all kinds of incoming and outgoing freight shipments except food or human consumption and coal for public utilities and hospitals has been declared on the Pennsylvania lines. Passenger service has not as yet been affected. Crews of road engines are reported remaining loyal.

That this strike is not against the railroads themselves but against the railroad labor board is emphasized by the strikers and by the union executives and is admitted by the railroad officials. It is the outcome of the disappointment of the trainmen at the repeated delays of the railroad labor board in coming to a decision.

CHATTER

"My husband is going to bring me a nice box of candy home this evening," said Mrs. Younghubby. "How do you know? Did he promise it to you?" asked Mrs. Naylor.

"Oh, dear, no!" replied Mrs. Younghubby. "But we had a terrible quarrel this morning!"

In New England there was a man who would never commit himself on any question. Time and time again attempts were made to compel him to take a stand, but to no avail. One day two of his friends decided to make another attempt. "Bill," said one of the men in the non-committal man's presence, "a traveler told me that he once saw a buffalo climb twenty feet in a tree to get some grapes."

"What's that?" exclaimed the other. "A buffalo climb a tree! Say, Jim," he continued, turning to the non-committal one, "what do you think of a story like that?"

"I don't know," replied Jim, "but there's no telling what a buffalo might do if he wanted grapes."

Sitting in the shadow of a vine-screened veranda, where only small spots of moonlight occasionally fell, was Edythe May. Close beside her was John Henry.

"John," remarked the fair one after a sound that might have been either kissing or swatting mosquitoes, "there is something that I want you to explain to me."

"All right, dearest," cheerfully assented John Henry. "What is it?"

"Why is it," responded Edythe May, "that you frequently say that you like me all the more because I am so changeable?"

"Because, dear one," explained John Henry, "every time I kiss you it is like kissing another girl."

ENGLAND THREATENS

Paris, June 21.—Premier Lloyd George hinted at the Hythe conference, that if France opposes a resumption of relations with Russia, England will disassociate herself from the work of reconstruction, according to the Journal today.

FORCED TO QUIT AFTER 30 YEARS

Well Known Carpenter Became Too Shaky To Drive — A Nail But Feels Fine — Now.

"If I had only taken Tanlac sooner, I would not have been forced to give up my trade," said W. D. Faurote, R. P. D. No. 2, South Bend, Ind., in an interview recently.

"I have been a carpenter for thirty years," explained Mr. Faurote, "and have worked at my trade all the time until recently when I got to feeling so played out I decided to take up farming and try to get my health back. My strength had been gradually leaving me for several years and at the time I moved to the farm my nerves had gotten so shaky that I actually couldn't hold a nail still long enough to drive it. My kidneys had been out of order for a long time and I could hardly rest at night but would wake up at all hours and just roll and toss from one side of the bed to the other. If I kept in one position any length of time at night I always got up in the morning with my back aching fearfully, my hips as stiff as a board and could hardly get about. My liver was sluggish all the time, and on top of all these troubles I had an attack of the 'flu' that very nearly finished me up."

"Now this is just the condition I was in when I began taking Tanlac—completely rundown and worn out—and I want the public to know how completely this medicine has brought me out. My nerves are now as steady as a clock, my kidneys no longer bother me and I can sleep soundly all night in any position and I get up in the mornings without a pain in my back or a sign of stiffness in my hips. My liver is in good condition and Tanlac has helped me in every way. Even the muscles of my arms which had gotten soft and flabby are now hard and firm, and I am feeling just fine all the time. Tanlac has built me up until I believe I could do as much carpenter work as I ever did. In fact, I am now in about as good health as I ever was and all the credit belongs to Tanlac."

"Tanlac is sold in Xenia by Sayre & Hemphill, in Yellow Springs, by A. Finley, Bowersville, N. K. Bowermeister; Fairfield, Paul P. Young; Osborn, C. J. Logsdon; New Burlington, W. C. Smith."

HAS LABOR PROGRAM

Federation to Move Against the National Democratic Convention.

Montreal, June 21.—The American Federation of Labor adjourned after endorsing the league of nations without reservations. The closing session of the two weeks' convention was a stormy one. Irish sympathizers, supported by the progressive wing of the federation, opposed the movement to endorse the league, and throughout the debate on the question President Samuel Gompers had difficulty in maintaining order. His gavel was smashed in his efforts to quiet the proceedings.

Mr. Gompers and the executive council left for Washington to put into operation the labor program framed by the convention. The first move, it was said, will be launched against the Democratic convention to obtain incorporation of the federation's program in the party platform. They will urge also that the federation's nonpartisan political policy, which was unanimously approved by the convention, be carried out.

DO ALL MY HOUSEWORK

Before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I could hardly stand, says Mrs. Kwarcinski.

Chicago, Ill.—"I suffered with displacement and irregularities and I did not know what to do. My mother advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and use the Sanative Wash so I took her advice and used these remedies and cured myself. I feel fine and do all my housework which I could not do before, as I could hardly stand up and I have three healthy children. You can use this letter if you wish, for your remedy is certainly wonderful for sick, run down women."—Mrs. A. KWARCINSKI, 3627 W. Oakdale Ave., Chicago, Ill.

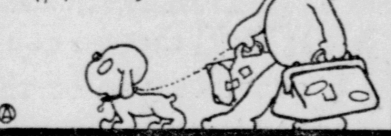

For forty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been making women strong and well, relieving backache, nervousness, ulceration, and inflammation, weakness, displacements, irregularities and periodic pains. It has also proved invaluable in preparing for childbirth and the change of life. Women who suffer are invited to write for free and helpful advice to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. It is free and always helpful.

FAVORITE RECIPES.
Indian Trifle—Three tablespoons cornstarch, three tablespoons white cornmeal, three cups milk, four tablespoons sugar, one-half cup shaved citron, one-half teaspoon cinnamon.
Mix cornstarch and cornmeal, scald milk and pour slowly over mixture, stir over fire until quite thick, add sugar, citron and cinnamon and cook in double boiler two or three hours, turn in molds or dish and serve with custard sauce.

Apple Cobbler—Four large apples, one teaspoon cinnamon, three-quarters cup sugar, one-quarter teaspoon cloves; pare and core the apples and cut each into eight pieces; lay in a deep plate lined with pastry; add sugar, spice and a little water; cover with pastry and bake slowly for one hour. Serve with cream or a sauce. A very healthful and satisfying dessert.

Cheese Delights—Slice bread, butter lightly on one side. Lay one half the slices on pans, butter side down, cover with sliced cheese. On that place the remaining slices of bread, butter side up, sandwich fashion.
Place in hot oven until cheese is melted and bread a light brown. Serve hot.

Savory Tongue—Get one fresh tongue, clean well and cook in water twenty minutes. Pour off water, add clear boiling water, thing a woman should do if her smile is not satisfactory is to examine her teeth. I want to give a few simple suggestions:
Never have a gold tooth put in or a gold filling where the filling shows. All front fillings should be of a material which I believe dentists call white enamel, which is absolutely invisible. Teeth that overlap can be straightened by means of thin wedges set between them and changed from time to time as the teeth slowly assume proper position.
Teeth that grow far up on the gums—eve teeth do this sometimes—should be pulled out. This case—where it is a matter of deformity—is about the only one where a good tooth should be sacrificed. A clever dentist can sometimes buff out a badly shaped tooth so as to make that even white line which is so desirable.
These very simple little things should be attended to if possible. In any question of economy a woman can save by not spending money on her hair or complexion or nails. (Woman often do spend more money on these non-essentials than they do on either dentists or doctors.) No smile could be anything but attractive if it showed a line of even healthy teeth.

As far as the personality goes, the desire to be good-natured and attractive is half of its accomplishment.

Grace K—The length of time the hair will stay in curl depends entirely on the character of the hair. If your hair is naturally straight, an artificial wave will not last more than a day or two in very hot or very damp weather. In cold, clear winter weather the waves may last three weeks.

Chapter 43
Now the department stores.

They were my last hope. If I could secure nothing there, I would have to try household service again. But I revolted against that. Not from pride now but because it would give me no time to learn any sort of business; I recalled how at Mrs. Bush's I never had a moment, day or evening, and was too tired even to read. I had hoped a business position would give me an opportunity to learn typing at least and so make my services valuable.

As I reached the front door the next morning, there lying on the hat rack, was a letter from Mother, and also a parcel addressed by her. I grabbed them and ran upstairs. They had been sent special and I was anxious.

"Where this reaches you Zena, you will be twenty years old. I have sent it special so you would get it. It doesn't seem more than yesterday when you were a little girl in short dresses. It seems only yesterday when you had your coming out party just a year ago. How much has happened in this year, dear child! I pray constantly for you—that some day you may be happy and successful. That I cannot help you is a great sorrow to me. Yet I know, I cannot, and that were I with you, I would only be a hindrance. My health is very bad. I seem to be growing weaker, altho Susan is an angel and does everything she can for me. I have always heard that no house was large enough for two families. I have disproved it. Here are Susan and I, never knew each other before and we are dwelling together in perfect amity. I help about the yard and a little in the house. I am not ill, not really! I have no pain at all. But I just feel weak and out of sorts. Nice weather is on the way and then I shall doubtless pick up.

"I have sent you an old fashioned chain and locket. Your father gave it to me on my twentieth birthday. It was the first thing he gave me after we were married. Think of it Zena, I was married at your age.

"Susan is also sending a gift—a bracelet which she says was fashionable at the same period. They are of the same dull gold, you will notice, and both of exquisite workmanship.

"With all my love, dear child, and remembrances from Susan—
"Your mother, Mary Stewart.

I opened the box. There reposing on a bed of white satin, in an old leather case, were the chain and locket, and the bracelet. They were exquisite, I seemed to remember that when I was a little girl Mother had entertained me one rainy day by showing me her jewel box—the one containing old-fashioned pieces she never wore, and that this chain had been among them. I found picture of beyond expression when, upon opening the locket, I found a picture of Mother and Father in opposite sides. They must have been taken about the time father gave her the chain and locket. Mother looked so young, The bracelet too fascinated me wonderfully. Yet as I put the chain around my neck and dropped the locket down inside my waist—I would always wear it—and looked the bracelet away in my suit case, I sighed.

My birthday! Tears poured down from my eyes as I recalled the last one. Then suddenly for the first time in weeks, Kenneth Lawrence flashed into my mind—his promise. The year was up—and he was at liberty to write me.

Then there swept over me a realization of my changed conditions. When Kenneth had seen me, met me, I was the petted daughter of a reputed millionaire, moving in the same circles as did his own aristocratic aunt. Now—what was I? As far as the real me went I was the same Zena Stewart, but would I be to him, to anyone?

All the questions, the emotion they excited, added to the remembrances of Dad the day had brought more acutely to me, would unfit me for seeking work. I knew so I took off my hat. One day, my birthday, would I take to myself—to look into my own soul and to decide what I should do.

Kenneth had no way of knowing where I was. I had left no address in New York, had communicated with no one. Neither had I given anyone mother's address. We were lost, utterly lost, unless I wished it otherwise.

Should I write Kenneth Lawrence—tell him my plight?

HAS LABOR PROGRAM

Federation to Move Against the National Democratic Convention.

Montreal, June 21.—The American Federation of Labor adjourned after endorsing the league of nations without reservations. The closing session of the two weeks' convention was a stormy one. Irish sympathizers, supported by the progressive wing of the federation, opposed the movement to endorse the league, and throughout the debate on the question President Samuel Gompers had difficulty in maintaining order. His gavel was smashed in his efforts to quiet the proceedings.

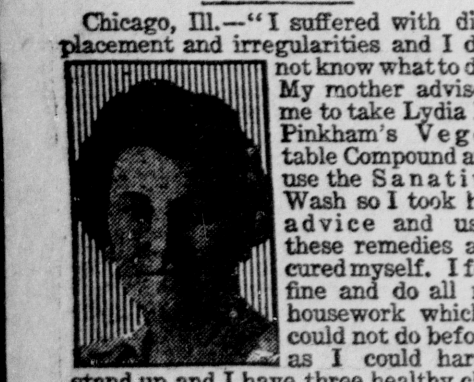

Mr. Gompers and the executive council left for Washington to put into operation the labor program framed by the convention. The first move, it was said, will be launched against the Democratic convention to obtain incorporation of the federation's program in the party platform. They will urge also that the federation's nonpartisan political policy, which was unanimously approved by the convention, be carried out.

Before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I could hardly stand, says Mrs. Kwarcinski.

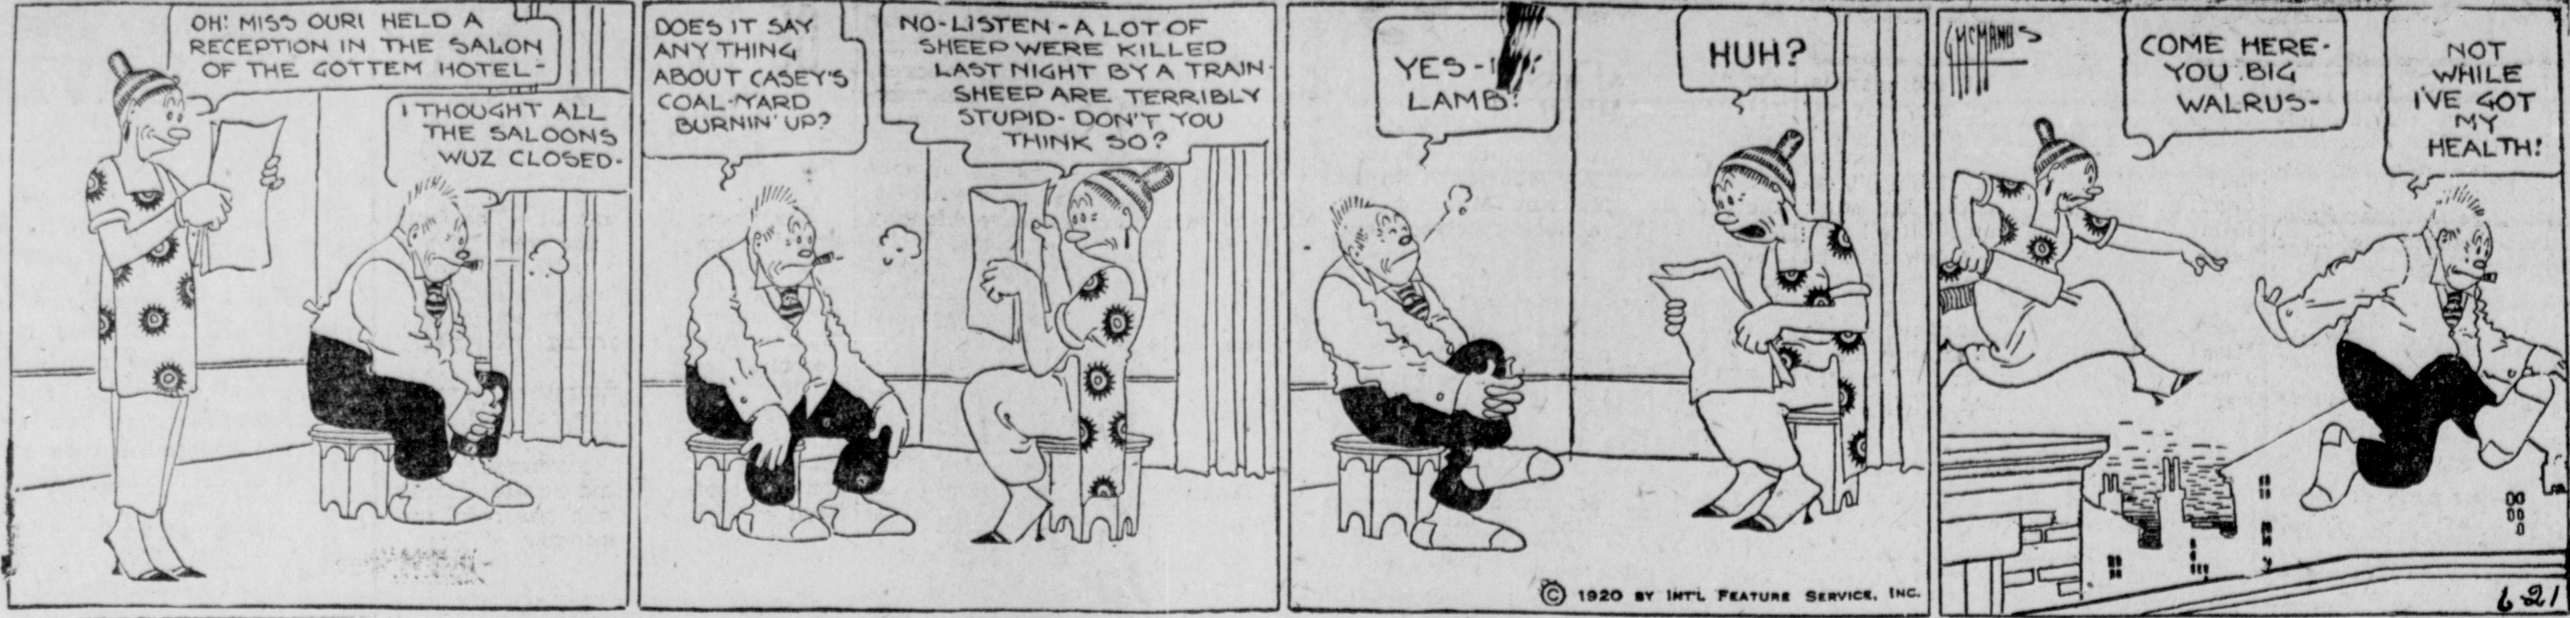

Chicago, Ill.—"I suffered with displacement and irregularities and I did not know what to do. My mother advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and use the Sanative Wash so I took her advice and used these remedies and cured myself. I feel fine and do all my housework which I could not do before, as I could hardly stand up and I have three healthy children. You can use this letter if you wish, for your remedy is certainly wonderful for sick, run down women."—Mrs. A. KWARCINSKI, 3627 W. Oakdale Ave., Chicago, Ill.

For forty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been making women strong and well, relieving backache, nervousness, ulceration, and inflammation, weakness, displacements, irregularities and periodic pains. It has also proved invaluable in preparing for childbirth and the Change of Life.

Some one has said that a winning smile is a matter of personality plus good teeth. It is certainly true that the most pleasant meat smile in the world is anything but pleasant to look at if it reveals a lot of jagged teeth that are badly in need of a dentist's attention.

I hardly know which is the more important ingredient for a pleasant smile—good nature or good teeth; on the whole, I should say that since good teeth are more easily acquired than a pleasant disposition, the first

Indian Trifle—Three tablespoons cornstarch, three tablespoons white cornmeal, three cups milk, four tablespoons sugar, one-half cup shaved citron, one-half teaspoon cinnamon.
Mix cornstarch and cornmeal, scald milk and pour slowly over mixture, stir over fire until quite thick, add sugar, citron and cinnamon and cook in double boiler two or three hours, turn in molds or dish and serve with custard sauce.
Apple Cobbler—Four large apples, one teaspoon cinnamon, three-quarters cup sugar, one-quarter teaspoon cloves; pare and core the apples and cut each into eight pieces; lay in a deep plate lined with pastry; add sugar, spice and a little water; cover with pastry and bake slowly for one hour. Serve with cream or a sauce. A very healthful and satisfying dessert.
Cheese Delights—Slice bread, butter lightly on one side. Lay one half the slices on pans, butter side down, cover with sliced cheese. On that place the remaining slices of bread, butter side up, sandwich fashion.
Place in hot oven until cheese is melted and bread a light brown. Serve hot.
Savory Tongue—Get one fresh tongue, clean well and cook in water twenty minutes. Pour off water, add clear boiling water.

thing a woman should do if her smile is not satisfactory is to examine her teeth. I want to give a few simple suggestions:

Never have a gold tooth put in or a gold filling where the filling shows. All front fillings should be of a material which I believe dentists call white enamel, which is absolutely invisible. Teeth that overlap can be straightened by means of tiny wedges set between them and changed from time to time as the teeth slowly assume proper position.

Teeth that grow far up on the gums—eve teeth do this sometimes—should be pulled out. This case—where it is a matter of deformity—is about the only one where a good tooth should be sacrificed. A clever dentist can sometimes build out a badly shaped tooth so as to make that even with the line which is so desirable.

These very simple little things should be attended to if possible. In any question of economy a woman can save by not spending money on her hair or complexion or nails. (Woman often do spend more money on these non-essentials than they do on either dentists or doctors.) No smile could be anything but attractive if it showed a line of even healthy teeth.

As far as the personality goes, the desire to be good-natured and attractive is half of its accomplishment.

Grace K—The length of time the hair will stay in curl depends entirely on the character of the hair. If your hair is naturally straight, an artificial wave will not last more than a day or two in very hot or very damp weather. In cold, clear winter weather the waves may last three weeks.

A WISE AND LOGICAL REASON FOR SUPPORTING THE REPUBLICAN PARTY BY HERBERT HOOVER.

Mind is the great Lever of all things. Human thought is the process by which human ends are answered. Times of calamity and confusion have often been productive of the greatest minds. The purest one is produced from the hottest furnace, and the brightest thunderbolt comes from the darkest storm.

What a Godsend to the world have been the intellect during the period of the world's great through. In our own country and "over there," they came forth and gave the mighty influence of their help in the darkest hours. Standing out in a peculiarly momentous relation to the needs of humanity, we all acknowledge that Herbert C. Hoover, the World Food Administrator, deserves a mead of praise of the highest order. In the great world crisis he saw the crux of necessity to save millions of lives. He saw, and acted. He is a great man—a man of great intellect. That is the reason that thousands of his friends favored his nomination by the Chicago convention. That is the reason we are glad to have him endorse the nomination of Harding. Did you notice that by invitation he breakfasted with Harding the other day. That brings us to the point of giving you the substance of a letter Herbert Hoover wrote to friends, after the Chicago convention (but before he had talked with Harding) on the political situation, which we deem very timely and full of wisdom, as follows:

"The Chicago platform is not radical; the greater part of it is constructive and progressive; nothing prevents the compromise planks on labor, the league, etc., from being given a forward-looking interpretation.

"In these times when the great problems and issues created by the war are new and are so complex, we must expect a wide divergence of views among the members of the party as to the methods by which they are to be met. It follows, therefore, that if there was to have been unity in the convention, there had to be a large measure of compromise. The compromises on the platform and the candidate are proof that we have not arrived at an era of new political and social tendencies and for this same reason the same divergent groups and the same attitude of compromise will be found in the Democratic convention.

"Nothing could be more disastrous than the development of several party organizations representing the complexion of every group in the country. With the legislative and executive functions more widely separated than in any other democracy the whole process of constructive government will come to an end if we have more than two dominant parties.

"If we should come to this position there will be no possibility of the American people obtaining an expression of the will of the majority and we shall be ruled entirely by log-rolling minorities or sterile political coalitions.

"I'm convinced that those of us—and I believe that they are the majority of the party—who hold more definite views, could not, even were we so inclined, successfully effect the consummation of such views outside the party, and that our duty is to endeavor to bring them to realization within the party organization itself as the issues on which they bear arise.

"For all these reasons I believe that those of us who look upon party organization not from the point of view of partisanship, but solely from the point of view of its usefulness as an agency of maximum service to the country, should support the Republican party at the polls."

THE VICE PRESIDENCY.

Senator Warren G. Harding, the choice of the Republican convention for the Presidency, has as a running mate Governor Calvin Coolidge, of Massachusetts, a man of power, ability and rugged determination.

At practically all preceding conventions, Democratic or Republican, all thought, all activity, influence and energy were devoted to the selection of a presidential candidate.

The matter of selecting a Vice President had been considered to be of negligible importance, when, as a matter of fact, it always should receive profound attention. No small man ever should be selected for the second place on the ticket.

VOLNEY CONKLIN DIES IN BOWERSVILLE; WAS IN FAILING HEALTH

While preparing to start the following morning for Rochester, Minn., where he expected to place himself under the care of Dr. Mayo, Volney Conklin, aged 71, of West Liberty, a former well known Greene countian, died Friday evening at 6:30 at the home of his brother-in-law, Alonzo Johnson, at Bowersville. He had been in failing health since early in the Spring, and ten days ago went to Bowersville with Mrs. Conklin, to prepare for the trip to Rochester.

Mr. Conklin is survived by his widow, who was before marriage Miss Ella Johnson and four brothers and two sisters; Edward Conklin of Arkansas, Albert Conklin of Selma; Roscoe Conklin, of Xenia; Arthur Conklin of Dayton; Mrs. Harry Steele of near Xenia, and Mrs. Ida Lowery of Cedarville.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 1 o'clock at the Johnson home. Interment will be made in Woodland cemetery, Xenia.

B. SCHLESINGER DIES FOLLOWING ILLNESS MONDAY AFTERNOON

Bernhard Schlesinger, business man in Xenia for more than half a century, and for over 36 years clerk of the enia Board of Education, died at 1:30 Monday afternoon at his home 511 South Detroit street.

Within the last two months Mr. Schlesinger had suffered three serious spells of illness, and was stricken the last time last Tuesday. He was afflicted by a complication of maladies.

Mr. Schlesinger was born in Koenigsvalde, Brandenburg Germany November 11, 1846. When he was 14 years of age he came to the United States, joining his elder brother, Harry Schlesinger, who was in business in the manufacture of trunks and handbags at Newark, N. J. During the civil war the brothers were engaged at Newark in the manufacture of knapsacks for the government.

In 1865 Mr. Schlesinger came to Ohio, and for a short time clerked in a store in Springfield, before coming to Xenia. In that city he took charge of a store which had been started here, and was thus engaged until 1872, when he and William Brady bought the stock of a store that was then located in the present site of the Gazette and Republican office on South Detroit street. They continued in business there under the firm name of Brady and Schlesinger until 1885 when they sold out. Mr. Schlesinger then opened a store on East Main street, continuing in business there until 1895. Since that time he was engaged in the insurance business, having his office on East Main street.

It was not long after he took up his residence in Xenia that Mr. Schlesinger came under the influence and the companionship of the late Col. Cates Kinney, who inspired in him a love of learning, and a desire to advance the cause of education. Mr. Schlesinger married Miss Kate Feurle in 1873. She survives him with the following children, Miss Marion Schlesinger, who is a teacher in Stivers' high school at Dayton; Hugo N. Schlesinger, of Columbus prosecuting attorney of Franklin county, and candidate for judge of the common pleas court; George F. Schlesinger, who was formerly on the faculty of the Ohio State University, and is now with the State Highway Department; Prof. Arthur M. Schlesinger, head of the department of history at Iowa State University, Iowa City, Iowa. A daughter, Mrs. Elga Schlesinger Spitzer, died a few years ago.

He was the last member of his immediate family. Mr. Schlesinger was a Royal Arch Mason, an Odd Fellow, Knight of Pythias and a Red Man.

Upon the occasion of his retirement from the Board of Education last January after the conclusion of his long term of service, Mr. Schlesinger was presented a handsome gift by the public school teachers.

Funeral arrangements have not been made.

I wonder what the road hog thinks, as he goes on his way, detested by all mortal ginks, and cursed by night and day. He surely hates the human race, as down the road he swings, and in his heart there is no place for kindly, friendly things. We have our little pewter carts, and we would sing and smile, if the road hogs didn't break our hearts each quarter of a mile. The road hog loafs along, alas, and when we honk our horn, beseeching room enough to pass, he grins with maudlin scorn. Around the risky curves he flies, and thinks he's in the swim; the rules that govern decent guys have little weight with him. Some day the fool will break his neck, but ere that day arrives, a dozen autos he may wreck, or spoil a dozen lives. And as I watch him drive his barge, and weave and spurt and turn, I wonder why he is at large, when there are jails to burn. I wonder why a man is fined ten dollars or ten days, for shooting road hogs and their kind, along the public ways.

A WISE AND LOGICAL REASON FOR SUPPORTING THE REPUBLICAN PARTY BY HERBERT HOOVER.

A WISE AND LOGICAL REASON FOR SUPPORTING THE REPUBLICAN PARTY BY HERBERT HOOVER.

Mind is the great Lever of all things. Human thought is the process by which human ends are answered. Times of calamity and confusion have often been productive of the greatest minds. The purest one is produced from the hottest furnace, and the brightest thunderbolt comes from the darkest storm.

What a Godsend to the world have been the great intellect during the period of the world's trouble. In our own country and "over there," they came forth and gave the mighty influence of their help in the darkest hours. Standing out in a peculiarly momentous relation to the needs of humanity, we all acknowledge that Herbert C. Hoover, the World Food Administrator, deserves a mead of praise of the highest order. In the great world crisis he saw the crux of necessity to save millions of lives. He saw, and acted. He is a great man—a man of great intellect. That is the reason that thousands of his friends favored his nomination by the Chicago convention. That is the reason we are glad to have him endorse the nomination of Harding. Did you notice that by invitation he breakfasted with Harding the other day. That brings us to the point of giving you the substance of a letter Herbert Hoover wrote to friends, after the Chicago convention (but before he had talked with Harding) on the political situation, which we deem very timely and full of wisdom, as follows:

"The Chicago platform is not radical; the greater part of it is constructive and progressive; nothing prevents the compromise planks on labor, the league, etc., from being given a forward-looking interpretation.

"In these times when the great problems and issues created by the war are new and are so complex, we must expect a wide divergence of views among the members of the party as to the methods by which they are to be met. It follows, therefore, that if there was to have been unity in the convention, there had to be a large measure of compromise. The compromises on the platform and the candidate are proof that we have not arrived at an era of new political and social tendencies and for this same reason the same divergent groups and the same attitude of compromise will be found in the Democratic convention.

"Nothing could be more disastrous than the development of several party organizations representing the complexion of every group in the country. With the legislative and executive functions more widely separated than in any other democracy the whole process of constructive government will come to an end if we have more than two dominant parties.

"If we should come to this position there will be no possibility of the American people obtaining an expression of the will of the majority and we shall be ruled entirely by log-rolling minorities or sterile political coalitions.

"I'm convinced that those of us—and I believe that they are the majority of the party—who hold more definite views, could not, even were we so inclined, successfully effect the consummation of such views outside the party, and that our duty is to endeavor to bring them to realization within the party organization itself as the issues on which they bear arise.

SEMINARY PURCHASES BUILDING FOR USE IN ST. LOUIS, MO.

Lenox Hall, formerly a well equipped young ladies' seminary in St. Louis, has been purchased by agents for the Xenia United Presbyterian Theological Seminary, and will be the new home of that institution.

With the announcement of the purchase of the building, representatives of a moving concern from St. Louis were at the present site of the Seminary in this city, packing up books and equipment, preparatory to shipment to the new location in St. Louis.

The deal for the Lenox Hall in St. Louis, was conducted by Judge Kyle of this city and Attorney Lashey of St. Louis, who acted as agents for the Board of Managers in purchasing the site. The building is duplex in arrangement, accommodating both class rooms and dormitory under one room, with a capacity of 64 students. Beautiful grounds surround the building, with plenty of space for expansion or the erection of new buildings in case of the enlargement of the Seminary.

In addition the new site adjoins Washington University, one of the six most richly endowed schools in the country, with an endowment of between 16 and 17 millions. This University has thrown open its courses and its gymnasium and athletic opportunities to the students of the Seminary. Washington University was recently the recipient of a Rockefeller gift for its medical department, of $1,250,000.

So well arranged is Lenox Hall, the new home of the Xenia Seminary that little will have to be done to fit, to fix it for occupancy of the Seminary in the fall, and the purchase of the site insures the school an excellent location in the city to which it is being moved.

RECEIVES PHOTOGRAPH OF GRAVE OF SON KILLED IN FRANCE

Photographs of the spot where her son, Joseph P. Foody, lies buried in the French soil for which he fought and died, have been received by Mrs. Honora Foody of East Second street, from the American Red Cross.

The American cemetery at Gesnes, France, where row upon row of crosses mark the places where the soldiers dead of this country sleep their last sleep is shown, and the grave of the Xenia lad, marked by a white cross which shows clearly his name upon the cross beam appears in the photographs.

Joseph P. Foody was killed while making a charge with his outfit, Company D, 127th Infantry in October, 1918. He was the only Xenia soldier killed in action, in his honor the local post of the American Legion, bears his name.

Accompanying the photographs were a letter, and an engraved folder conveying the sympathy of the American Red Cross for the mother's loss.

The letter is signed by W. R. Castle, Jr., director of the Department of Communication of the American Red Cross. It contains information regarding the photographing of the graves, which is being carried on by the Red Cross under the direction of the Graves Registration Service of the Army. It says, "The Graves Registration Service, and the American Red Cross will be amply repaid for long months of arduous labor if you accept these photographs as a reverent tribute to the American soldier who made the supreme sacrifice."

LETTERS

V.—In giving wedding linen or silver, it is proper to put the initials of the girl's maiden name. It has been explained very cynically that the girl might change her mind and marry someone else, whereas initialed silver or linen is much more permanent than any maiden's choice.

L. K. M.—Any face treatment which stimulates the skin, will gradually remove scars that are the result of pimples. Cold cream, massage and the use of ice or other astringents are all to be recommended.

Gertrude—Using henna shampoo according to my formula will not change the color of the hair but will make it glossy and brighter in tone. The henna shampoo is made by mixing one ounce of powdered Egyptian henna and 3 ounces of powdered castile soap, and using a heaping tablespoonful of this in a pint of hot water for every shampoo. This should be lathered over the head and allowed to remain on for about 10 or 15 minutes.

Tiny—If you are in normal health, there are two easy ways to increase your weight. One is to take one or two tablespoonful of olive oil before every meal; the other is to drink the flattening chocolate, egg and malted milk combination. To make this, melt sufficient chocolate and sugar for a thick syrup, then beat up an egg in a glass of milk, add a few tablespoonful of chocolate syrup and as much plain or whipped cream as you can.

Dot—Probably the reason why your hair is not glossy after being washed, and why it does not curl, is that you do not rinse out all the soap. Few people do. In shampooing the hair, go over it twice with soap and rinse four times in hot water and once in cold. Naturally curly hair frequently loses its wave when it contains a lot of soap.

East Lynne—To make the cleansing cream, heat the oil and wax until they are melted, warm the rose water with the other ingredients in it, then remove from the fire and pour the rose water slowly into the oil, beating them thoroughly together. As they cool they will congeal. When about the consistency of thick cream, pour off into jars. The only possible way in which you can go wrong would be in heating the ingredients too hot, in which case they would not blend properly.

K. M.—The following cure for nits is frequently given in this space: Soak the head in kerosene and tie up over night; next morning shampoo and dry. Soak the head again in vinegar. Then, with a fine tooth comb kept wet in vinegar, go over the scalp carefully, combing out all the eggs. Shampoo a second time.

SAYS LLOYD GEORGE WANTS CONSCRIPTION

London, June 21.—"We are faced with conscription for civil war," declared the Daily Herald, organ of the labor party, in commenting today upon Premier Lloyd George's Irish statement comparing the situation in the United Kingdom with that which existed in the United States in 1861. The Daily Herald added:

"There is to be a peace army of 525,000 men and this large garrison must be maintained abroad."

Over fifty years ago a young physician practiced widely in a rural district and became famous for his uniform success in the curing of disease. This was Dr. Pierce, who afterwards established himself in Buffalo, N. Y., and placed one of his prescriptions, which he called "Golden Medical Discovery," in the drug stores of the United States so that the public could easily obtain this very remarkable tonic, corrective and blood-maker. Dr. Pierce manufactured this "Discovery" from roots and barks—a corrective remedy, the ingredients of which nature had put in the fields and forests, for keeping us healthy. Few folks or families now living have not at sometime or other used this "Golden Medical Discovery" for the stomach, liver and heart. Over twenty-four million bottles of this tonic and blood remedy have been sold in this country.

Only tough, pure manila fibre can be made into cordage of such strength. And yet "Blue Heart" costs no more than ordinary rope.

"Blue Heart" manila will wear twice as long as low-grade rope. The quality of the fibre gives it not only great strength but also high wear-resisting ability.

SEMINARY PURCHASES BUILDING FOR USE IN ST. LOUIS, MO.

Lenox Hall, formerly a well equipped young ladies' seminary in St. Louis, has been purchased by agents of the Xenia United Presbyterian Theological Seminary, and will be the new home of that institution.

With the announcement of the purchase of the building, representatives of a moving concern from St. Louis were at the present site of the Seminary in this city, packing up books and equipment, preparatory to shipment to the new location in St. Louis.

The deal for the Lenox Hall in St. Louis, was conducted by Judge Kyle of this city and Attorney Lashey of St. Louis, who acted as agents for the Board of Managers in purchasing the site. The building is duplex in arrangement, accommodating both class rooms and dormitory under one room, with a capacity of 64 students. Beautiful grounds surround the building, with plenty of space for expansion or the erection of new buildings in case of the enlargement of the Seminary.

In addition the new site adjoins Washington University, one of the six most richly endowed schools in the country, with an endowment of between 16 and 17 millions. This University has thrown open its courses and its gymnasium and athletic opportunities to the students of the Seminary. Washington University was recently the recipient of a Rockefeller gift for its medical department, of $1,250,000.

So well arranged is Lenox Hall, the new home of the Xenia Seminary that little will have to be done to fit it for occupancy of the Seminary in the fall, and the purchase of the site insures the school an excellent location in the city to which it is being moved.

RECEIVES PHOTOGRAPH OF GRAVE OF SON KILLED IN FRANCE

Photographs of the spot where her son, Joseph P. Foody, lies buried in the French soil for which he fought and died, have been received by Mrs. Honora Foody of East Second street, from the American Red Cross.

Joseph P. Foody was killed while making a charge with his outfit, Company D, 127th Infantry in October, 1918. He was the only Xenia soldier killed in action. In his honor the local post of the American Legion, bears his name.

Is It Yours

Jaques Offenbach, French composer of light opera, has become so famous that his name is frequently put with those of the great serious musicians. He remodeled entirely the popular taste of his period, and might, in fact be called the father of modern musical comedy.

He was born in Cologne, of German-Jewish parents. His talent for music developed so early that when he was 14 he went to Paris to study the violin cello. He was apparently so good at this that at 15 he was a member of the orchestra of the famous Opera Comique. He was only 29 when his first piece was produced, and it was a great success.

Indeed, his success was so great that he opened a theatre of his own to produce his own operettas. Night after night he crowded his place with fashionable audiences to see the brilliant humorous trifles that he produced. The plays were tuneful, gay, exhilarating, with a fairly consistent story and with, occasionally, a good deal of rough humor. In 25 years he produced 69 complete dramatic works of three or four acts apiece. These were given in every town in Europe that owned a theatre.

Offenbach died in Paris when he was 61 years old. He was at the height of his popularity, and had a host of imitators among the young musicians.

BOOKS FOUND IN STRANGE PLACES

BOOKS for better citizenship among new Americans; books for workers as incentives to productivity; books to allay the suffering of soldier sick in hospitals; books on the merchantman to shorten seemingly interminable days at sea; to coast guardians to brighten empty hours of ceaseless vigils; books as eyes for the sightless; books where none are; books for every purpose: "Books for Everybody."

These are the purposes of the Enlarged Program which the American Library Association in co-operation with existing libraries has adopted to promote good reading and universal self-education through books and libraries by creating a public sentiment that will adequately support existing libraries and cause libraries to be established where none now exists. Opening new avenues to knowledge through the media of libraries by making known the power that lies within the printed page is the underlying motive of this movement which will be supported by a fund of $2,000,000 now being raised by personal appeal of librarians, library trustees and friends of libraries rather than by resort to the usual intensive drive or campaign methods.

The American Library Association, an organization 44 years old, with which 4,000 librarians are affiliated, recognized with the war's end the needs of people of the United States for books, and to meet these needs has diverted its war-time energies and organization to this extensive peace-time effort.

With America's entrance into the war, the A. L. A., at the solicitation of the government, assumed the responsibility for supplying reading matter to the army and navy. It established camp libraries, provided librarians and books, followed the fighting forces overseas, and accomplished during a brief two years the distribution of more than 7,000,000 books to service men. The armistice did not end its work, however.

There was a need for useful books to discharged service men that the American Library Association met. Those returning were placed in touch with home libraries, or where these were inaccessible a return-by-mail book service is being maintained. Generous assortments of books are being sent to disabled veterans in hospitals, to men in the merchant marine, and to lighthouse keepers and coast guards. The new Enlarged Program purposes the expansion of this service, and more.

Any ex-service man who has not access to a free library may borrow books directly by writing to A. L. A., 24 West 39th Street, New York City.

There are 60,000,000 persons in the United States totally without or only partially served with books, and the majority of these are dwellers in remote rural districts. Extension of the county library system in co-operation with existing library agencies is intended in the movement, that these persons may have ready access to the best of books. The county system through branch libraries set up in the far-distant towns and hamlets and by the book wagon media has been proved the most thoroughly efficient method of caring for the reading needs of a rural people. The book wagon, now regarded as an extremely desirable unit of the system, is a rolling library on wheels which brings books to those who cannot go to books.

The work of Americanization, which has received impetus from the war, will be considerably augmented by that phase of the Enlarged Program which purposes to promote better citizenship among 15,000,000 newcomers to our shores. The reading of books on American aims, ideals and traditions will be encouraged, as will the printing of more reading matter on these subjects in foreign languages to attain this end.

Technical libraries in industrial plants, commercial and mercantile institutions will be fostered in the Enlarged Program that workers in all pursuits shall have adequate advantages for self-enlightenment with books which directly appertain to the work in which they are engaged. In this effort the A. L. A. will act with the Special Libraries Association and with those employers interested in greater efficiency among their employees. The reading of technical books which now have places on shelves of public libraries likewise will be encouraged.

Another important object which the movement purposes to attain is the printing of more books for the blind in the new, uniform Braille type. There are now less than 200 volumes in this type available to the 75,000 sightless in this country.

Is It Yours

Jaques Offenbach, French composer of light opera, has become so famous that his name is frequently put with those of the great serious musicians. He remodeled entirely the popular taste of his period, and might, in fact, be called the father of modern musical comedy.

He was born in Cologne, of German-Jewish parents. His talent for music developed so early that when he was 14 he went to Paris to study the violin cello. He was apparently so good at this that at 15 he was a member of the orchestra of the famous Opera Comique. He was only 29 when his first piece was produced, and it was a great success.

Indeed, his success was so great that he opened a theatre of his own to produce his own operettas. Night after night he crowded his place with fashionable audiences to see the brilliant humorous trifles that he produced. The plays were tuneful, gay, exhilarating, with a fairly consistent story and with, occasionally, a good deal of rough humor. In 25 years he produced 69 complete dramatic works of three or four acts apiece. These were given in every town in Europe that owned a theatre.

Offenbach died in Paris when he was 61 years old. He was at the height of his popularity, and had a host of imitators among the young musicians.
